Preface

Why another concordance? This is the question that has prompted this preface. It is hoped that by this explanation, the reader will be encouraged to not only use this work for inspiration but even begin their own topical concordance and share that with others.
This is not considered to be an exhaustive work in any context.

Over the years there have been times when access to a published concordance has been denied for one reason or another. On two previous occasions, the author has purchased a small note book and divided it into twenty-six sections, one for each letter of the alphabet. Notes were made in these books regarding where certain passages that answered a question could be found again at a later date. The entries were not based purely on the verse but rather on the topic the scripture related to.

There are other topical concordances available as well as reading guides and suggested passages to be read in times of need, however, these works often fail to ensure that the verses read will show the reader the context that the writer intended to maintain. There are also often other passages that relate indirectly to the topic where the reader would gain more understanding of the initial verses read. These issues are also an important focus of this work. Cross references are made to other entries where they may help to bring a clearer understanding of the thought being investigated.

Above all, this work is intended to reveal truth as it is in Jesus the Christ and bring glory to our God.

Larry Pouncey.

Introduction

Version 2 has been compiled with the intention of having it printed to paper. If you prefer to use a PDF viewer, it is recommended that you obtain a copy of the ten smaller files provided in Version 1 of this work.

The format for this work is intended to allow the reader to easily see each entry as an individual item while also seeing other entries connected to the same topic. The table columns are as follows:-

The Keyword or Topic.	A thought that comes from the passage being considered.	1 - The verses to read while ensuring that the writer's context is maintained. 2 - Cross references to other entries.	Unique code.

All entries in this work are in alphabetical order based on the Keyword in the first column of the tables. Each entry includes a unique code in the last column. The codes are based on the first letter of the Keyword with a number that makes the code unique. The codes are in loose numerical order within each table. References to see another code number are as shown in the following examples:-

The reference to "See Cain40" refers to the entry under the keyword "Cain" with code C40

Abel	Abel's sacrifice to God was a lamb	Genesis 4:4. See Cain40	A35

The reference to "See Abel35" refers to the entry under the keyword "Abel" with code A35

Cain	Cain's offering was from vegetation, NOT from the herd.	Genesis 4:2&3. See Abel35	C40

Authority

Author - Larry Pouncey

This is a short study of the word “Authority” as it relates to women in the Church. In this context, “authority” has been a very controversial subject in Christian circles. This study is intended to give Christians the opportunity to discover God’s view on the subject as He has revealed it to the Church through the Scriptures. This study focuses on two verses,
1 Timothy 2:12 and 1 Corinthians 7:4.

Of course, we should not restrict our reading to these specific verses but rather read the surrounding passages to ensure that we have read in the context intended by the writer. Please read these scriptures in your own bible as well as considering what has been made available in this document.

There are many other verses that also speak on this issue. Please read them in your own bible.

Strong's Numbers and Their Translations

G1321

διδάσκω

didaskō

did-as'-ko

A prolonged (causative) form of a primary verb δάω daō (to learn); to teach (in the same broad application): - teach.

G831

αὐθεντέω

authenteō

ow-then-teh'-o

From a compound of G846 and ἔντης hentēs (obsolete; a worker); to act of oneself, that is, (figuratively) dominate: - usurp authority over.

G2271

ἡσυχία

hēsuchia

hay-soo-khee'-ah

Feminine of G2272; (as noun) stillness, that is, desistance from bustle or language: - quietness, silence.

Good News For Modern Man
The New Testament in Today's English Version

1 Timothy 2:12 I do not allow women to teach or to have authority over men; they must keep quiet.

The New English Bible – New Testament

1 Timothy 2:12 I do not permit a woman to be a teacher, nor must a woman domineer over a man; she should be quiet.

New Testament, Contemporary English Version

1 Timothy 2:12 They should be silent and not allowed to teach or to tell men what to do.
(Verses 10 and 11 indicate that "They" are "Women who claim to love God".)

The New Testament Letters

1 Timothy 2:12 I do not allow women to take office as teachers, or to have the direction of men; theirs is a silent service.

The New Testament in Modern English For Schools

1 Timothy 2:12 A woman should learn quietly and humbly. Personally, I don't allow women to teach, nor do I ever put them in positions of authority over men – I believe their role is to be perceptive.

The New Testament in Modern Speech

1 Timothy 2:12 I do not permit a woman to teach, nor to have authority over a man, but she must remain silent.

The New Testament Recovery Version

1 Timothy 2:12 But I do not permit a woman to teach or to assert authority over a man, but to be in quietness

Witness Lee's notes on 2:12: Woman - 1 Cor. 14:34. Teach – To teach here means to teach with authority, to define and decide the meaning of doctrines concerning divine truth. For a woman to teach in this way or to exercise authority over a man is to leave her position. In God's creation man was ordained to be the head, and woman to be in subjection to man (1 Cor. 11:13). In the church this ordination should be kept. Quietness – silence, abstention from speaking.

The Ryrie study Bible

1 Timothy 2:12 But I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet.

Ryrie's note on 2:12: I do not allow a woman to teach. Women are not to assume the office of teacher in the Church (see 1 Cor. 14:34). Women may teach as long as they do not usurp the place of leadership and authority of men in the church. The injunction is based on the relationship of man and woman in the original creation (Gen. 2:18; 3:6).

Serenity: A Companion for Twelve Step Recovery

1 Timothy 2:12 And I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence.

The Way

1 Timothy 2:12 I never let women teach men or lord it over them. Let them be silent in your church meetings.
